C. H. FLATO.

The GAZETTE'S prices on printed letter heads, bill heads and envelopes are as low as anywhere, and the work is neat and satisfactory.

Note the change in the ad. of C. H. Flato this week. He has received an immense stock of new goods, and wants the public to know it.

Mr. Harry Folts is now the agent for the sale of the Galveston News in Shiner. Harry is a hustler and will serve his paper faithfully.

Mr. A. P. Vaughn, representing the Galveston News, was here last week canvassing the city in the interest of his paper, Texas' greatest daily paper.

The round bale press was in operation last Saturday at Trautwein & Wolters' gin, and quite a crowd was in attendance to observe its workings.

Ed. Thulemeyer and W. P. Eidelbach were in town Saturday and Sunday from Flatonia, and attended the Dramatic Club social Saturday night.

H. E. Felshaw, representing the big commercial agency of R. G. Dun & Co., was in the city last Thursday, checking up the ratings for his company.

Harry and Rudy Flato left yesterday for Beeville to brand 300 steer yearlings purchased by them. They will ship the cattle to their ranch near San Angelo.

Mr. William MacIn has been awarded the contract to paint the 20 iron bridges of Lavaca county, at $14.98 per bridge, the county furnishing the material.

The boll worm seems to be gaining ground in the vicinity of Shiner, especially on the black land. Mr. Wm. Zander, Mr. H. Dreyer and Mr. D. Othold report the destruction of entire fields of cotton by this pest, and know of no way to check their ravages.

Mr. John Lyne, prominent and well known stockman of Oakville, Live Oak county, arrived in the city Saturday on a visit to his old time friend and associate, Mr. L. M. Kokernot. Mr. Lyne and Mr. Kokernot drove cattle together over the prairies of Lavaca county in 1857, and up to the breaking out of the civil war. Mr. Lyne says there were no houses for thirty miles north and west of Sweet Home at that time, and the country looked a perfect paradise.

The Dance Social.

The dance social given at the opera house last Saturday night was a decided success, both in point of numbers and enjoyment. The temperature was cool and pleasant and the dancing was enjoyed by all. The music by Messrs. Thulemeyer and Eidelbach was all that could be desired. The refreshments were ample and were enjoyed by all, and much credit is due Miss Isabelle Weptland and Mr. O. H. Flato, Jr., for their untiring efforts to make the affair a success. The crowd was too large to enumerate, suffice it to say that all enjoyed themselves to their heart's content.
